ORDER REGARDING DISCOVERY FROM NON-PARTY ORIGINAL EQUIPMENT
MANUFACTURER GENERAL MOTORS

WHEREAS the Parties¹ filed a Renewed Motion to Compel Discovery from Certain Non-Party Original Equipment Manufacturers and Their Affiliated Entities on November 7, 2016 (ECF No. 1500), including from General Motors, LLC, and its affiliated entities (collectively, “GM”);

WHEREAS, the Special Master has issued a separate, general Order regarding the Motion to Compel that applies to all of the OEMs, and further determined that additional specific orders should issue with respect to each OEM separately; and

WHEREAS, the Serving Parties and GM have reached agreement, as a result of their negotiations and mediation with the undersigned, on the categories of documents and data to be produced by GM and the categories of documents and data the Parties sought and GM would be able to produce, if compelled by the Court.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that GM shall produce documents and data to the Serving Parties in accordance with the terms of that agreement, as set forth in General Motors Exhibit A, attached hereto. To the extent that the attached Exhibit A conflicts with the general Order on the Motion to Compel, the more specific provisions in the attached Exhibit A control.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that neither this Order nor any agreement by any of the Serving Parties with respect to documents and data to be produced by the OEMs shall be deemed to waive or otherwise prejudice any arguments about the evidence and information obtained from the OEMs, including that such evidence or information is irrelevant, inadmissible, or insufficient to establish any matter relevant to any claim or defense. Each party expressly reserves its rights to assert any such arguments, without limitation, throughout the course of all cases in this MDL.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that by reaching an agreement, neither have (i) the Serving Parties waived any rights regarding this subject, including the right to object to this Order or to seek additional documents or data in the future should the need arise, nor (ii) has General Motors waived any objections to producing the documents or data sought now or in the future by the Serving Parties, or to appeal this Order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that by limiting production of certain upstream categories of documents and/or data to only those parts at issue in the Bearings and AVRP cases, this Order does not prejudice the rights of any party to seek (or GM's right to oppose) production of additional upstream documents and/or data for parts at issue in other cases in In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation in the future.

Pursuant to the Court's Order Appointing a Master dated August 29, 2014, the Special Master's rulings as set forth herein are appealable to Judge Marianne O. Battani within fourteen (14) days of the entry of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: December 29, 2016
